PARTNERSHIP PROSPECTUS

INTERNATIONAL PARTNERSHIP to Prevent the Political Abuse of Religion

Advancing the Declaration of Intent through International Cooperation

The voluntary Partnership brings together governments, institutions and distinguished leaders that have endorsed the Declaration of Intent on Preventing the Political Abuse of Religion. It provides a global executive platform to advance the Declaration's objectives, strengthen international cooperation and achieve lasting global impact.

Convened by
BPUR International and
National Human Rights Council of Morocco (CNDH)

An invitation to participate
as Institutional Partners, Individual Partners and Founding Patrons

Why the Partnership Matters

A shared international response to a global challenge

Prevention requires sustained cooperation before discrimination and conflict take root.

The political abuse of religion undermines equality and social cohesion, fuels conflict and destabilises communities worldwide.

The long-term ambition is to help develop clearer international principles and standards to address the root causes of religious conflict and discrimination, supported by sustained cooperation before crises escalate.

01 Shared principles

Clear international principles to guide prevention and cooperation.

02 Preventive cooperation

Sustained action before discrimination escalates into conflict.

03 Protecting Equality

Advancing equality and security for women, children and minorities.

04 Moral integrity

Protecting the moral integrity of religion from political exploitation.

The Global Opportunity

A permanent platform for governments, institutions and stakeholders to advance the objectives of the Declaration.

Founding Ambition

Seven founding priorities

The Partnership will translate the Declaration into sustained international action through seven connected priorities.

01 Founding Summit and International Forums

02 Executive Secretariat and Global Operations

03 Government and Institutional Engagement

04 Local, Regional and International Consultations

05 Partnerships and Civil Society Cooperation

06 Programmes for Publication, Translation and Outreach

07 Progress, Learning and Reporting

A Permanent Platform

Each priority will strengthen prevention, participation and international cooperation.

Ways to Participate

Three paths to joining the Partnership

Participants are recognised as Institutional and Individual Partners. Those providing founding support will also be recognised as Founding Patrons.

01 Institutional Partners

Governments, parliaments, national institutions, international organisations and religious institutions endorsing the Declaration and actively advancing its objectives.

02 Individual Partners

Highly distinguished political, religious and civic leaders, and influential figures from the arts, culture and sport, contributing to advance the Partnership's objectives.

03 Founding Patrons

Philanthropists, Institutional Partners and Individual Partners whose support helps establish the Partnership's capacity, international reach and long-term sustainability.

Shared Participation

Each partnership is developed through constructive discussion to reflect the participant's role, priorities and contribution.

Stewardship and Next Steps

Shared Leadership for International Cooperation

International Partnership built on integrity, transparency and accountability.

Core Principles

01 Global objectives

Focused international action to achieve the Declaration's objectives.

02 Institutional integrity

Independent governance for principled international action.

03 Meaningful participation

Partners contribute experience, leadership and practical cooperation.

04 Transparent communication

Regular reporting on progress and achievements.

05 Lasting value

Active participation in a permanent platform for international cooperation.

Next Steps

1. Build government leadership
2. Expand the Partnership
3. Advance shared priorities
4. Shape global solutions
