

INTERNATIONAL PARTNERSHIP to Prevent the Political Abuse of Religion

International Partnership Prospectus

Join a historic international partnership for lasting global impact

Built on the Declaration of Intent on Preventing the Political Abuse of Religion, the International Partnership is a voluntary global platform for cooperation. This prospectus invites governments, institutions, distinguished leaders and prospective Founding Patrons to advance the objectives and build the international reach.

Convened by
BPUR International and
National Human Rights Council of Morocco (CNDH)

An invitation to participate

For Institutional Partners, Distinguished Partners and Founding Patrons

A shared international response to a global challenge

Prevention requires sustained cooperation before discrimination and conflict take root.

The political abuse of religion undermines equality and social cohesion, fuels conflict and destabilises communities worldwide.

The long-term ambition is to help develop clearer international principles and standards to address the root causes of religious conflict and discrimination, supported by sustained cooperation before crises escalate.

01 Shared principles

Clear international principles to guide prevention and cooperation.

02 Preventive cooperation

Sustained action before discrimination escalates into conflict.

03 Human protection

Stronger equality and security, especially for women, children and minorities.

04 Moral integrity

Protecting the moral integrity of religion from political exploitation.

The Global Opportunity

A permanent platform for governments, institutions and stakeholders to advance the objectives of the Declaration.

Seven founding priorities

The Partnership will translate the Declaration into sustained international action through seven connected priorities.

01 Founding Summit and International Forums

02 Executive Secretariat and Global Operations

03 Government and Institutional
Engagement

04 Regional and International
Consultations

05 Partnerships and Civil Society
Cooperation

06 Publication, Translation and

A visionary community for global impact

- ☐ Partners are listed in the official Annexes to the Declaration and recognised on the Partnership website.
- ☐ Participation creates opportunities for dialogue, cooperation, networking and international engagement.
- ☐ Recognition reflects each partner’s role and contribution to the Partnership.
- ☐ Institutional and Distinguished Partners providing founding support will also be recognised as Founding Patrons.

Three paths to joining the Partnership

Participants are recognised as Institutional and Distinguished Partners. Those providing founding support will also be recognised as Founding Patrons.

01 Institutional Partners

Governments & institutions

Governments, parliaments, national human rights institutions, religious institutions and international organisations endorsing the Declaration and advancing its objectives.

02 Distinguished Partners

Individuals

Highly distinguished religious, civic and political leaders, and influential figures from the arts, culture and sport.

03 Founding Patrons

Founding Support

Institutional and Distinguished Partners whose founding support helps establish the Partnership's capacity, international reach and long-term sustainability.

Shared Participation

Each partnership is developed through respectful discussion to reflect the participant's role, priorities and contribution.

Leadership for global action

Participation is guided by clear responsibilities, institutional integrity and transparent communication.
